Patty,

Greetings from the delightful Yorkshire Spa town of Harrogate.

On March 12th The Harrogate Band (Yorkshire's finest brass band) will be setting off on a year long journey of cultural excellence performing our fantastic concert programme to audiences around Yorkshire.

This year we're absolutely delighted to be performing the Canadian classic "My Ain Folk" by Canadian born composer Laura Lemon (1826 – 1924).

It's a gorgeous arrangement that really suits the sounds of a British style brass band and we know our audiences are going to love it. Our conductor is an excellent compère and he will be promoting this piece as one of many highlights of Canadian cultural achievement. It is also important to note that this piece represents a great achievement by a woman composer.

We'd like to offer you, or any member of the club, a complimentary ticket to any of our concerts where we will be performing "My Ain Folk".

Our concert programme is published on our website www.harrogateband.org

We appreciate you are based in London but if you were planning a trip to the wonderful county of Yorkshire we'd be delighted to have you as our honoured guests at one of our concerts where we will perform this piece.

Yours sincerely,

Nick Garrett
